

Preaching Christ....
...by the power of the Holy Spirit
...and the authority of the Word of God

Date: 10 October 2022
Services: Across the Diocese
Series: Hallowed by your name
Passage: Matthew 6:5-15
Title: Our Father in Heaven
Outline: We see prayer's
1. Context
2. Challenge
3. Potential

our brains have an incredible capacity don't they? - or perhaps I should speak for myself?

- * what I mean is this - sometimes you can find yourself thinking of something entirely different to what you are actually doing.
- * if you drive, you know those times when you've driven home late at night - your mind on the meeting or concert you've been to, or you deeply engrossed in conversation with your passenger, and when you get home, you suddenly realise you've basically been driving on auto pilot and you can't remember which way you've come or which lights you've stopped at!
- * or you're ironing // - guys - you know what it's like - and you're watching TV and thinking about the program and suddenly you've finished what you're ironing without thinking about it?
- * or at church - I don't know about you, but I find I can sing a hymn or say the creed and my lips are moving, and the voice is coming out, but my mind is elsewhere - on the events of the day or what's for lunch!
- * and it's because of that, that I want us to spend a few weeks exploring the depths of that prayer we have come to know as the "Lord's Prayer" - because I think it's very easy to mouth the words without giving a lot of thought to what the prayer actually means. //
- * this prayer is full of great insights and correctives - and full too of great joys - and I hope you'll come back each week to tap into the riches of this prayer.
- * the sad irony of this prayer, is that we have taken what Jesus meant as a pattern for prayer and turned it into something we quickly rattle off.
- * Just two verses before the prayer in v7 Jesus sternly warns his disciples - do not keep babbling like the pagans, for they think they will be heard because of their many words.
- * The way we use this prayer sometimes, I think we are in danger of babbling like the pagans! //
- * How careful we must be in praying the words of this prayer - and perhaps saying them less often is more helpful - that we might know what we mean and mean what we say! ////
- * well enough introduction // - three aspects of prayer to see in the opening words of Jesus' pattern this morning – prayer's context, prayer's challenge and prayer's potential

1. Prayer's context

- * the two opening words tell us clearly that the context of prayer is relationship.
- * how do we address our prayer to God? - 'Our Father'
- * and as its only your children you call you father (if you're a father) and my children who call me father - so it is only those who are God's children who can address God in prayer.

Preaching Christ....
...by the power of the Holy Spirit
...and the authority of the Word of God

- * and although plenty of people may send up the odd prayer now and then, it is only those who are God's children who have access to God in prayer.
- * Christians are of course, children of God by adoption - as many as received them says John in his gospel - he gave the right to become children of God.
- * Have you received Jesus? - welcomed him into your life? Then you are a child of God!
- * Rejected him or ignored him? Then the privileges of prayer and relationship with God and his help and strength will not be yours, until such times as you do come into the family!
- * but once you are in the family - the privileges are enormous!
- * calling God "Father" is just one.
- * John in his letter wrote (1 John 3:1-2) - see what love the Father has lavished on us - that we should be called children of God. What great love indeed!
- * for the disciples who first listened to Jesus, calling God "Father" would have been revolutionary – God for them was someone distant, far away - holy, too above them to relate to personally - you needed a priest to mediate for you – which is why the Jew hardly dared to take his name on their lips!
- * but if God is our Father and we his children, our understanding of prayer itself changes.
- * we are not trying to twist God's arm, nor do we have to work to get his attention, nor do we need anyone else like a saint or Mary to pray for us - you are his child - he is your Father.
- * because Jesus' death has dealt with your sin - because he has mediated once and for all - you can come into God's presence and God - the perfect Father - is all ears!!
- * in fact we are reminded that he is more ready to listen than we are to pray and wants to give us more than we either desire or deserve!
- * so this is the context of prayer - a loving relationship of Father to child. //
- * now that has got to be an encouragement, hasn't it?
- * We have a Father, waiting for us to come and speak with him. He cares for us. He loves us.
- * We can be certain if he has given us his Son, he will not fail to give us all measure of good things. //
- * but secondly this morning, here's is prayer's challenge:

2. Prayer's challenge

- * children hate to admit when they need help.
- * remember what it's like with a two-year-old determined to put say their own singlet on?
- * And they get their head through the sleeves and scream in frustration because they can't get it right, and if you try to help them, they have to take it off and start again because now their effort has been rendered null and void because you dared to reach out just to help them get it over their heads! //
- * we tend to be like that when it comes to God.
- * that is, I'm sure one of the reasons that we do not pray as we ought, is because we don't like to admit we need help.
- * part of prayer is to the challenge to admit we need help, and to seek it in the only place it can be found.
- * Our Father - in heaven, we pray.
- * that is, not only do we have someone who is our Father and willing to help - we have someone who is

Preaching Christ....
...by the power of the Holy Spirit
...and the authority of the Word of God

King - enthroned in the heavens and wonderfully able to help. //

- * how important that we understand the God to whom we pray. //
- * the fact that God is 'in heaven' reminds us that he is great, eternal, infinite, almighty - more than able to deal with all the needs we bring to him when we pray.
- * and the challenge of prayer is simply this - that in prayer we acknowledge our total dependence on Him.
- * he is not our equal, and we are not self-sufficient.
- * isn't it true that we can be very successful in business, or in our profession, very successful in setting up home in a nice suburb or property, with 2.5 kids and a dog etc; live good lives, contribute to society etc; and life is good....
- * ...but it's hard for us to come to God in prayer!
- * It's hard to start the day with God and say – "*Father in heaven - I need your help today".
- * ...because we can appear to have everything at our fingertips and be managing very nicely thank you!
- * but the things we need help for aren't necessarily the trivial things like getting our work done and pulling off the next business deal or getting the next crop off, or making it through the next lambing season, but the really hard job of living for God.
- * no – it's he really hard job of getting our priorities right so he is the most important part of our lives.
- * ....the really hard job of resisting the temptation to neglect our family for the demands of the property or business.
- * ...the hard job of remaining honest in a world where that sort of thing is frowned on.
- * These are things we need help for!
- * And the Father who is in heaven, is wonderfully WILLING and ABLE to help us to get our life in to order and keep it that way.... ///
- * I want to ask whether later today... you may sit down and talk to you Father in heaven – your wonderful Father – who is utterly for you – who loves you so much – and spend unhurried time with him...?
- * will you say to him – "I need your help to live for you, to see things your way – DO things your way; to love like you love... to resist temptation... I need your help to put you first above everything else."
- * That's the very real and great challenge of prayer – to come in humility and admit we need his help... that we can't live his way // without him... ///
- * we've seen the context of prayer, and the challenge of prayer, finally we need to explore:

3. Prayer's potential

- * we could look together at a lot of things here....
- * but I want to highlight just three
- a. Prayer can build intimacy and trust
- * my dad is with the Lord now... but you know it was only in his latter years that I started to share with my dad what was on my heart and to seek out his wisdom.
- * and of course, it's only natural that when I did that, our relationship grew... it deepened

Preaching Christ....
...by the power of the Holy Spirit
...and the authority of the Word of God

- * that is exactly what will happen as you spend unhurried time with God in prayer
- * ... as you share the desires, and longings, and joys and regrets of your heart...
- * ...you will grow in your relationship... your trust will grow... so much so that when the hard times come, you won't panic or quickly enter into despair – you will automatically turn to the one with whom you've grown close!
- b. Prayer will change the way you see things....
- * more of that over the next couple of weeks as we look at hallowed be your name and your kingdom come...
- * but suffice to say at this point – that the more you come to God in prayer, the more your desires, longings, plans and passions will align with his. /
- * as you pray that he will be honoured in the world and his will, will be done... do you know what will happen? – you will find yourself working towards the honouring of his name... and you will want to do his will!
- * so prayer will change the way you see the world.... You'll see it much more through his lenses...
- * your desires will align with his...
- * prayer will change you... //
- c. Prayer will change the world
- * I love it when Paul says in Ephesians chapter 3, that God is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine...
- * more than all we can ask or imagine!!
- * now I imagine that those watching here today are able to ask for a lot and imagine a lot!!
- * but he is our Father in heaven!
- * and he is able to do MORE than either we can ask or imagine
- * nothing is too hard for him!
- * what is impossible for us // is possible with God!
- * friends – this means in approaching our Father in heaven – we need to think big... ask big... imagine big...!!
- * have you asked him to change and transform you?
- * have you asked him to bring help and hope to those you love?
- * have you asked him for healing?
- * for peace?
- * for wisdom?
- * have you asked him to grow your church?
- * to draw men and women and boys and girls to himself?
- * to have mercy on people across central and western NSW?
- * think big. Imagine big
- * and he is able to do more than we can ask or imagine! ///

Preaching Christ....
...by the power of the Holy Spirit
...and the authority of the Word of God

- * Let's conclude
  - * are you a child of God? You've welcomed Jesus as the most precious part/person in your life? Then this pattern of prayer is for you.
  - * we are privileged to call the God of the universe "Father".
  - * He deeply cares - he knows you as a father knows his child - because he IS your Father, and you ARE his child!
  - * and he is in the heavens - he has all power at his disposal and is able to help you in ways you haven't dreamt of!
  - * got a problem today? - something troubling you - a worry, a decision, a temptation?
  - * take it to your Father. Your Father who is in heaven... and wait on him to answer and help you...
  - * for the context of prayer is relationship
  - * the challenge of prayer is to give up our self-sufficiency and to depend on him
  - * and the potential of prayer – is – well – it's more than either we can ask or imagine!
